SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: three (3) years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4.  You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5.  You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6.  You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7.  You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

CASE NUMBER: CR 19-95-BLG-SPW-1

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. ## SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must have no contact with the following victim(s): T.B. K.B. and C.B.
2. The defendant may use a personal computer(s) or personal Internet capable device(s); however, he must limit that use and/or possession to personal computers or personal Internet capable devices that are capable of being monitored by the U.S. Probation Officer, and have monitoring software installed and approved by the U.S. Probation Officer. Any computer or Internet capable device must be able to be effectively monitored by and comply with the requirements of monitoring software utilized by the Probation Office. In order to allow for effective monitoring, the defendant may be limited to possessing a total of only two computer(s) or personal Internet capable device(s). For the purposes of this condition, the term computer is defined at 18 U.S.C. § 1030(3), which includes, but is not limited to, traditional computers (Windows/Apple/Linux based machines), cellular phones, internet tablets, and game machines and related accessories. The defendant must disclose any username or identification(s) and password(s) for all wireless routers, computers or Internet capable devices to the probation officer.
3. The defendant must, at his own expense, allow the Probation Officer to install any software/hardware designed to monitor activities on any computer or Internet capable device you are authorized by the Probation Officer to use. This monitoring may record any and all activity on the device, including, but not limited to, the capture of keystrokes, application information, Internet use history, email correspondence, and chat conversations. You must inform all parties who access approved computer(s) or similar electronic devices(s) that the device(s) is subject to search and monitoring. You must not attempt to remove, tamper with, reverse engineer, or in any way circumvent the monitoring software/hardware. The defendant shall not make any attempt to conceal or erase the names of sites visited, or any other data. The defendant shall be prohibited from using any form of encryption, cryptography, steganography, compression, password protected files and/or other method that might limit access to, or change the appearance of, data and/or images without prior approval from the Probation Officer.
4. The defendant shall provide a complete and accurate inventory of all computers, computer-related equipment, and communications devices and services on an inventory form provided by the Probation Office. The defendant agrees to ensure that all information on the inventory form is complete, accurate, and current at all times. The defendant shall not use, possess, or access any electronic device or service not reported on the inventory form. The defendant shall consent to the Probation Officer conducting periodic unannounced examinations of his/her computer(s), hardware, software, and other electronic devices, which may include retrieval and copying of data from his/her computer(s). This also includes the removal of such equipment if necessary, for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection or investigation.
5. You must sign the necessary consent form to allow the probation officer to verify utility and telephone access (services) and bills (both past and present) to your residence.
6. You must participate in a program for mental health treatment as approved by the probation officer. You must remain in the program until you are released by the probation officer in consultation with the treatment provider. You must pay part or all of the costs of this treatment as directed by the probation officer.

DEFENDANT: DONALD RAYMOND FOOTE, JR.
CASE NUMBER: CR 19-95-BLG-SPW-1

7. You must refrain from excessive use of alcohol. Excessive use of alcohol is defined by this Court as .08 BAC or above.
8. You must participate in substance abuse testing to include not more than 52 urinalysis tests, not more than 52 breathalyzer tests, and not more than 36 sweat patch applications annually during the period of supervision. You must pay part or all of the costs of testing as directed by the probation officer.
9. You must not possess, ingest or inhale any psychoactive substances that are not manufactured for human consumption for the purpose of altering your mental or physical state. Psychoactive substances include, but are not limited to, synthetic marijuana, kratom and/or synthetic stimulants such as bath salts and spice.
10. You must not purchase, possess, use, distribute or administer marijuana, including marijuana that is used for recreational or medicinal purposes under state law.
11. You must pay restitution in the amount of $3,600.00, at a rate of $162.00 per month, or as otherwise directed by United States Probation. Payment shall be made to the Clerk, United States District Court, 2601 2nd Avenue North, Billings, MT 59101 and shall be disbursed to:
